

A WORD OF TESTIMONY

I praise and thank God that my parents were saved when I was a toddler. I was faithfully sent to Sunday school each week where I learned about my need of a Saviour. John chapter 3 tells us that: “ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” At the age of six I bowed on my hands and knees at my living room sofa and asked the Lord to save me from my sins. Romans chapter 10 reminds us that “Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” It wasn’t until I reached secondary school age that I began to grow deeper in my faith and my personal relationship with the Lord. Through faithful Sunday School, Bible class, Girls’ Brigade and Scripture Union leaders I was taught the Word of God and began to apply it to my young life. I thank God that I enjoyed great fellowship with my Christian peers at school who encouraged me. During my time at university my walk with the Lord was not as close as it should have been, however, I thank God that He is ever faithful and never leaves or forsakes us, even when we disappoint Him. The Lord opened the door to a career in teaching after teaching me much patience and to trust in Him for every need. He has continued to guide me daily and has kept me over the years. I can truly agree with the Psalmist who writes in Psalm 106: “ Praise ye the Lord. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.”

Angela Hampton